

EMSWORTH TRAVEL NEWSLETTER

Emsworth Travel have decided to send out monthly newsletters to include the latest offers, events, blogs that may be of interest. We plan to send this out in email form so if you are not already on our mailing list, let us have your email address as soon as possible to travel@emsworthtravel.co.uk

Emsworth Travel has in June 2011 opened a facebook account at EmsworthTravel (no space as we managed to duplicate an account due to the computer being slow to upload – great things computers when they work!). On here we post daily offers and have extensive albums with our own properties in Bansko, Bulgaria and Yalikavak, Turkey. We also update our blogs on here so join us as a friend for more information.

We have also joined twitter if you prefer to keep updated with our offers on there. Our account is EmsworthTravel (no space)

Take a look at our restyled website at www.emsworthtravel.com. We now have pdf brochures to download for both our apartments in Yalikavak, Turkey and ski/spa apartment in Bansko, Bulgaria. Availability of both apartments is also shown on this site. We can also sell overseas properties – details loaded on this site. We also have a link to our travel side for more travel information and offers at www.emsworthtravel.co.uk

We haven't stopped there! We even opened in June a new blog to keep you up to date with our travel experiences and advice. You will find on the blog Debs trips to Greece and Jamaica with photos and Sue has added her trip to Warners Suffolk with photos and her recent Superbreak weekend to Devon. Other trips to be covered this year include Gambia and Sharm, Egypt, Bansko and Greece and Sue travelled to Dover on Friday to a 5 star cruise ship convention with chance to see the Oceania Marina, video and pictures to follow.....

We have for some time considered starting a social group for singles aged 30-55 years. The reason I have decided on this age group is that holidays for the group 18-30's and over 55's is already covered. The aim is to offer events or social evenings offering things we would not normally feel comfortable doing alone such as skittles, race meetings, theatre trips, quadbiking, weekend breaks, holidays and much more.... If you are interested, or know anyone that you think may be, contact us with your details at travel@emsworthtravel.co.uk. If anyone is interested, there is a boat trip/cruise from Portsmouth on the Wight Scene carrying up to 500 passengers on 17th August for £19.50 including buffet and first drink and will leave promptly at 7 pm taking in the sights of Portsmouth Harbour, the Forts in the Solent and also a glimpse of the islands coastline. This is just a short 2-2 ½ hour trip taking in the scenery and not a disco cruise but will advise if I hear of one in the future. I am thinking of arranging bowling which would be good fun. Let me know who is single 30-50s and would like to join us.
